

Urban Development Fund

In the capacity of the Management Body for the 2021 - 2027 Integrated Territorial Programme, the Ministry of Regional Development and EU Funds of the Republic of Croatia assigned to the Croatian Bank for Reconstruction and Development (HBOR) the task of implementing the Urban Development Fund financial instrument, for which the funds are provided by the European Regional Development Fund (ERDF) and HBOR, and from which new long-term investments of local or regional government units or companies, institutions, agencies and other legal entities owned by local or regional government units or by the Republic of Croatia are financed in accordance with rules on aid.

1. Borrowers

Public sector entities:

- Units of local or regional government (LRGUs): municipalities, cities and counties;
- Companies, institutions, agencies and other legal entities owned or majority-owned by LRGUs and/or the Republic of Croatia

Ineligible Borrowers are defined in Schedule 1 to the Loan Programme: Ineligible Activities and Borrowers.

2. Purpose of Loans

Capital investments (investments in fixed assets - tangible and intangible assets) of public sector entities in mixed commercial/public infrastructure, i.e. investments that, in addition to the public element, also have a certain commercial content that implies the generation of revenues from the collection of service fees and whose goal is to encourage the projects of environmental protection, energy efficiency and renewable energy sources and generally the construction of multi-purpose, sports, tourist, socio-cultural, business and similar infrastructure.

3. Eligible Investments

- Financially sustainable investments¹
- Investments on the territory of the Republic of Croatia
- Investments in line with territorial strategy or other equivalent strategic document on the included areas that contains the following elements:
